Dedicated to economy and development.

The banknote has been printed on white paper with the size of 155 x 70mm. The front side of the banknote features development from ancient times to present through architectural symbols, as well as symbols of Azerbaijan marta and economic development. The back side of the banknote features maps, representing Azerbaijan’s integration into Europe, as well as traditional Azerbaijan national ornaments.

The "Caucasian Euro" from Austria
By the editorial office, 13th January 2006, 02:28 PM
Since last Sunday, Azerbaijan has a new currency. The design originates from the designer of the Euro [banknotes], Robert Kalina. Also, the new cash is produced in Austria.
Baku – On Sunday, Azerbaijan has performed a currency reform. In doing this, 5000 previous Manats (AZN) became exchanged for one new manat, which approximately has the value of one Euro. Also, the symbol of the new Manat resembles the Euro sign turned sideways (see picture). The people of Azerbaijan call their new currency the “Caucasian Euro”.

While the shown archive page from "Der Standard" does not contain the picture mentioned in the text, by its description (shown emphasized) it is unambiguous that the Manat symbol discussed here is addressed. Thus, this newspaper article is a reliable source proving the Manat symbol being official.
