

L2/02-367

Subject: Double Combining Breve Below, Double Combining Macron
From: Peter Constable
Date: Wed, 30 Oct 2002

I happened across two more double diacritics. In the IPA Handbook (Cambridge) they use a symbol which looks as follows:

kp

This is also cited in Pullum and Ladusaw's Phonetic Symbol Guide (U. of Chicago).

Also, in Papua New Guinea, in a language called Buin, they use a symbol that looks as follows:

eē

Peter